

The Autódromo Internacional do Algarve will host another major sporting event, the Algarve Classic Festival 19-21 October.

A festival to celebrate the great endurance races of the season in which the powerful prototypes struggled for victories. The AIA has so various races of 2 hours that will put to the test claw all pilots and their machines.

Will be in lane 9 categories with a total of 14 races: JD Classic Challenge, U2TC, Sirtling Moss Trophy, GT & Sport Car Cup, Pre-War Sport Cars, Formula Junior, 1.000Km, IGD (Gentlemen Drivers Iberian) - Portimao Race and National Championship Classics 1300.

The 1000km Endurance Championship is a visit to some of the most prestigious European circuits such as Donington UK, Dijon in France or Italy in Monza.

Will be present at the prestigious circuit of Portimão cars as varied as Lola T70, Ferrari 512, Chevron B8 and B16, plus BMW 2002, Ford Escort MK2, GTAM Alfa Romeo, Porsche 911, Shelby 350, Ferrari Daytona, Ford GT40, Pantera , Datsun 240Z Series 1, with a special class for V8 touring cars pre-1963.

This is the fourth year that takes place this great festival, now called Algarve Classic Festival, the largest and most important event for historic cars in Portugal.